Application Examples

1. Code the program that calculates the sum of Natural Numbers until "n" by using a function.

2. Code a function to create your own integer scanner.

3. Code the program that ranks an array from lowest to the highest by using a function.

4. Code the program that converts user-entered lowercase characters to uppercase characters or uppercase characters to lowercase characters by using a function.

5. Code the program that converts lowercase characters to uppercase characters and uppercase characters to lowercase characters of user-entered words/sentences by using a function.